THE MORMANS IN WINSTON

They Explain Their Doctrines To Twin-City Citizens.

TOUCH POLYGAMY GINGERLY.

Hung Jury's Verdict—Big Damage Suit Against Reynolds Quashed.
Lybrook and Ormsby Waiting.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Winston, N. C., Jan. 14.—Elders Ensign and Williams, two Mormon preachers who travel from place to place as missionaries for their faith and church, commenced a series of meetings here last night. Seventy-five or a hundred people listened to them. Their first service was very similar to any other evangelical meeting, being conducted in the same manner, with no incident to excite curiosity. They accept our Bible so far as they think it is correctly translated and claim for the Book of Mormon that it is only an additional book of prophecy and revelation.

They touched lightly upon polygamy, stating that as well known, it is not now practiced in Utah, the wife of the first marriage being the only one the husband now lives with, but at the same time he has an alimony to pay to all other wives he had when the national law against polygamy went into effect. They further stated that that practice had never been compulsory by the church, men being free to do as they pleased. They said that statistics show that only 2 per cent of their people ever practiced polygamy. They claim the Book of Mormons to be the history of the Ten Lost Tribes of Israel.

Meeting was announced for tonight and during the week.

A hung jury for the past two days in Superior court came to a verdict last night and gave Martin Peoples $450.00 damages against the city for a leakage of the reservoir upon his adjacent lot.

The big $20,000 damage suit brought against R. J. Reynolds for the death of Wm. Hairston, colored, last March, caused by the explosion of a licorice boiler, was non-suited at the instance of the plaintiff's counsel.

Lybrook and Ormsby, the newly appointed postmasters for Winston and Salem respectively, have not as yet received their commissions, and a few doubting Thomases are trying to make it appear that they have not been appointed.

BEST IN THE STATE.

A Visit to Alderman's Photograph Gallery.

Have you visited Mr. S. L. Alderman in his new quarters on East Market street? A Telegram man called there this morning, and while the work of arranging and fitting up the rooms has not been finished, enough has been done to show what an elegant place it will be.

Ascending an easy flight of stairs from the street we reached a landing on the second floor and turning to the right entered an elegant reception room, which is a veritable art gallery. From this room is a stairway leading to the operating and finishing room. Here was the best and most complete arrangement for doing photographic work we have ever seen.

There are two dressing rooms finished complimentary to our two female colleges, the State Normal and Industrial College and the Greensboro Female College, the colors being white and gold and green and white respectively. The operating room is finished in colors which absorb rather than reflect the light, giving much more desirable effects in making exposures.

Mr. Alderman, in addition to his reputation of being the best photographer in the state, has beyond a doubt the finest and most complete gallery in the state. Indeed, it is claimed by those who are in position to know, that there is not a finer or more complete operating room in the south.

THE ATTRACTIONS OF KEELEY.

It is One of the Most Home-Like Places Imaginable.

Those people who have never been through the new Keeley Institute here can hardly form an idea of what it is like. A Telegram man took advantage of a visit there to run over the place and see its attractions. Of course there is order and system just as in every well regulated home but beyond that there is nothing to interfere with the liberties of the inmates.

The Institute is really a comfortable, quiet, well arranged and well cared-for home. It has the whole block of twenty or twenty-five acres to itself with beautifully shaded and well kept grounds, and the outlook from its windows is perhaps the best in the city.

Inside there is room for seventy-five patients to live comfortably. There is not a suggestion of hotel or hospital about it. The smoking room, club room and offices below stairs are filled with men who read, smoke, chat, indulge in games, music or amuse themselves in whatever way their fancies may dictate. It is like a man's club or a shooting party in a country house after a day's sport. The reporter found one man who had quietly stolen into the kitchen to superintend the whipping of some cream.

There are patients in the Institute from six states, north and south, and the number is gradually increasing, for every patient that leaves the roof of Col. Osborne and his associates is sure to advise his friends to go there.

During the period of its beneficent work here the Institute has had patients from Virginia, South Carolina, Tennessee, Maryland, Illinois, Canada, Texas, Michigan, District of Columbia, Kentucky, Pennsylvania, New York and Georgia. So far reaching has been its work.

Once or twice a week the management arranges for musicales, entertainments, etc., which those who wish may attend while those who prefer quiet may always find it in the large and roomy building.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News from Our Neighbor
Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU.
HIGH POINT, N. C., Jan. 14, '98.

Mrs. Jane McDaniel, of Randolph county, who has been so desperately ill with peritonitis, was operated on yesterday by Dr. J. W. Long and his staff, Dr. D. A. Stanton, of this place, and Dr. J. O. Walker, of Randleman, assisted by the attending physicians, Drs. Ferree and Lewis. The case is one that has aroused considerable interest. The patient is in her sixty-second year, and was in such a condition that the surgeons feared to give her a general anesthetic, so with heroic fortitude she submitted to an abdominal section with only cocaine as local anesthetic.

Dr. Long and his trained nurse passed through last night en route to Salisbury.

The announcement of the death of Sammie Lewis, fourteen year old son of Postmaster R. C. Charles, cast a feeling of sadness over every one as it was told on the streets yesterday afternoon. He died yesterday at 6:15 p. m. of purpura. He was sick about two weeks. The death of this young man was exceedingly sad and he will be greatly missed by the family and his hosts of acquaintances and companions. The funeral will take place from the Baptist church tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. The bereaved family has the sympathy of the entire community.

The Archdale Concert Co. gave an entertainment in Randleman Wednesday night. They passed here this morning going to Thomasville. We hope to have them with us soon.

Seaborn Perry is at home for a few days.

C. C. McAllister, of Asheboro, passed through last night en route to Charlotte on business.

A. C. Dodamead went down to Randleman and Asheboro yesterday on a business trip.

Washington, Jan. 14.—Although the objection made in the senate yesterday to the present consideration of McKenna's nomination carried over till today it is not decided whether an attempt will be made to secure his nomination today. Objection from the democratic side is understood to have been induced by a spirit of resentment at the wording of McKenna's dispatch congratulating Hanna on his election to the Senate.

How a Bright Private Secretary Secured a Favor.

There is a certain representative in the House from a western state whose secretary is a young lady. She is pretty and she is as bright as she is good looking, being also the possessor of a pair of beautiful brown eyes.

The other day she called on a cabinet official to ask a favor for a constituent. The grave and dignified head of the department looked at her and said:

"My dear young lady, I am afraid I cannot do what you ask, although your big brown eyes—"
"Then the ayes have it," quick as a flash the young lady said. And she got what she requested.—Washington Star.

OTHO WILSON AND FREE PASSES.

Doings Before the Railroad Commission Yesterday.

The Raleigh correspondent of the Charlotte Observer reports: Otho Wilson was the performer this morning before the railroad commissioners. It would be difficult to say who was the more gratified—the new commissioners or Otho. Grand Inquisitor Caldwell was interlocutor. He asked Otho if the Southern Railway had given him special freight rates to Round Knob. Otho said he had been given "round-trip rates." This meant half fare, said Commissioner Pearson.

Otho was asked if he had a Pullman pass for 1897. He said yes, and exhibited it, and then he exhibited to the delighted chairman a pocket-book full of railroad passes. The mouth of the chairman must have fairly watered as he saw these passes on every road in the State.

Otho was further asked if he had been given free express. He said yes; that a couple of packages had been deadheaded for him from Richmond just before Christmas.

Governor Russell was put on the stand this afternoon and swore as follows: "I want to state to the commission that I understand Otho Wilson has stated that he consulted me as to taking passes from railroads for himself and the other commissioners and that the Governor advised him to take passes. This statement is true. He stated to me that the railroads had been in the habit of giving passes to the commissioners and were willing to do so in the future, and that by their taking passes the State would save about $2,000. I told him if the railroads were willing to bear this expense, save the State this money, it would be well for the commissioners to take passes and save money to the Treasury. That is all."

It is probable that the commission will order a reduction in freight rates in the near future.

A CHAPTER OF HISTORY.

Columbus, O., Jan. 12.—The Columbus Glee Club, headed by a large delegation of citizens, called on Senator Hanna tonight. Mr. Hanna responded in a spirited speech. Among other things he said:

"The lines are drawn now. We know the difference between patriot and traitor, and it so happens that aside from being a candidate for Senate of the United States, I also happen to occupy the exalted position, given to me by the republican party of the United States, as chairman of the national committee of that party, and in my official capacity I now utter the proclamation that no traitors are wanted in our camp.

"Although I have been pictured by my adversaries in the press of this state as an autocrat and plutocrat, I stand before my fellow citizens from every part of the state and tell them face to face that it is a lie. My whole life has proved it is a lie, and my future life will prove that it is a lie."

Senator Hanna sent the following telegram to President McKinley:

"Columbus, O., Jan. 12.
"Hon. William McKinley, President, Washington:
"God reigns and the republican party still lives.

"M. A. Hanna."

Mr. Hanna received over 2,000 congratulatory telegrams. Among those is one from President McKinley, and other distinguished citizens. That from McKinley was as follows:

"Executive Mansion, Washington, D. C., Jan. 12:

"Mrs. McKinley joins me in heartfelt congratulations. The result now plainly forecasted is one in which our best citizenship, irrespective of party, will profoundly rejoice. I congratulate you heartily, not only upon a victory beneficial to the country, but upon your leadership in a contest worthily won under the most trying circumstances.

"Wm. McKinley."

We print this as a chapter in American political history. It is worth the careful thought of every thoughtful citizen.

You have in it the biography of Mark Hanna—in the lines and between the lines.

You have in it the deepest degradation of the exalted office of President since the Union was built—built at what a cost and drifting to what an end!

Mr. Hanna's life proves that he is not a plutocrat! Is he not wealthy? Has he ever given a beggarly hundred out of his millions to support a worthy cause? Has a crumb ever fallen from his miserly table to a starving fellow mortal? Would mankind be the worse tomorrow if the vulgar breath, used only to vaunt himself and to traduce his betters, were to cease?

His life proves it! What has the life of Mr. Hanna been but one long period of greedy grasping after wealth for wealth's sake? Has he any of the taste, the gentlemanly instincts, the broad view, the culture, that should go with his position? Read his speech.

On the eve of a victory he could have well been silent. He stoops to brag about the "exalted position" he occupies, he indulges in cheap and cowardly threats against the men who did what they might to save Ohio from the crowning disgrace of his representation and the Senate of the United States from its befouling presence. This is, we presume, American statesmanship.

But it is in a telegram that Mr. Hanna adds the last touch to the picture: "God reigns and the republican party still lives."

And this from Mr. Hanna! With the caress of bank bills used to buy his office still soft on his pudgy fingers, he pens that message. That is Mark Hanna's comment on an epoch of legislative debauchery that has made Americans ashamed of their country. The torch of an incendiary in one hand, the dagger of an assassin in the other and a psalm to the Infinite on the tongue were not more incongruous.

It is vulgar, it is cheap, it is vicious, it is shallow, it is sacrilegious, it is—Mark Hanna.

After leaving the committee room Mr. Oyster said to a Star reporter: "The comparison which I desired to make in my evidence between the two years of 1894 and 1895 under the spoils system &c.—Washington Star.

And yet a great many people persist in saying "as mum as an oyster."

The Washington Star is soon to occupy a new $300,000 building. For clean, bright and reliable journalism the Star has few, if any, superiors in America. It deserves most richly the prosperity of which this move is an evidence.

President Dole, of Hawaii, is coming to this country to work for annexation. The anxiety of Mr. Dole to deprive himself of his native land is one of the most beautiful pieces of unselfishness in the history of nations.

The frigid silence with which Mr. Marion Butler regards the middle of road populist pow-wow at St. Louis is eloquent of the presence of the Hon. Thomas Watson therein.

Otho Wilson's claim that in the free pass business, Governor Russell played an Eve to his Adam reveals a pathetic instance of innocent trust misplaced.

The fact that the Havana mob was led by Spanish army officers was the strongest guarantee of its absolute harmlessness.

The only possible argument for the annexation of Hawaii is to be found in the fact that the sugar trust opposes it.

The only thing that is as wide open as a letter of J. Wiley Shook is New York under the sway of Tammany Hall.

TO PUBLISH THE PENSION ROLL.
A Bill Introduced in the House Requiring its Publication Annually.

Washington, Jan. 12.—The movement for the publication of the pension list has been brought to the attention of Congress in the shape of a bill introduced today by Representative Beach of Ohio. It provides that the Commissioner of Pensions shall annually prepare and issue on March 1st of each year a true and accurate statement, compiled from the records of the Pension Office for every county of every State, setting forth the name in full and the place of residence of all persons receiving pensions, the date of the allotment of the pension, the claim and cause of allowance, the original allowances in each case, and increase, if any, with cause alleged; the amount of increase, arrears in each case, and a citation by date of the number of the bill or act under which the pension or increase was granted.

Mr. Beach is of the opinion that, as the pension lists is a roll of honor, no one should object to its publication, and that it would greatly aid the Government in tracing frauds by giving it widespread and annual publication.

150 NATIVES KILLED.

A British Survey Party Massacred—Capt. Burns Alone Escapes.

Bombay, Jan. 12.—A British surveying expedition, consisting of 150 natives under Capt. Burns, have been massacred on the coast of Belochistan.

Capt. Burns alone escaped.

EMBLEM OF THE REPUBLIC.

Gen. Miles Believes It Should Be Worn By The Army.

While in Europe Gen. Miles observed that the soldiers and sailors of nearly all the great nations wore the insignia of the crown or some other imperial mark upon their uniforms. He believes the idea worthy of adoption in this country, and that the uniform of the soldiers of the United States should similarly display the emblem of the republic. He has accordingly suggested that a national device, preferably the coat-of-arms of the United States, be placed over the chevron of every non-commissioned officer of the army, and on the collar or other convenient place on the uniform of every officer. In his opinion, the national coat-of-arms with the motto, "E Pluribus Unum," on a scroll underneath, would be an appropriate device for display on the uniforms of the United States army.—Washington Star.

THE LATEST ANDRÉE RUMOR.

His Balloon Said to Have Been Seen in British Columbia.

Stockholm, Jan. 13.—Professor Nordenskjöld, the arctic explorer, has informed the Swedish Academy of Science that the foreign office has received intelligence that several persons worthy of credence saw Professor Andrée's balloon early in August, in British Columbia, seven miles north of Quesnelle lake, in the district of Cariboo. The professor regards the news as being of sufficient importance to call for closer investigation.

ARCHER TEMPORARILY INSANE.

Tried and Found Guilty of Wilful Murder While of Unsound Mind.

London, Jan. 13.—The trial of Richard Archer, who murdered actor William Terriss, began and ended today. The jury found Archer guilty of wilful murder while of unsound mind. The Court ordered him detained as a criminal lunatic. Witnesses testified to various acts, showing Archer's mental unsoundness. The prisoner assumed a jaunty air throughout the proceedings, and in a loud voice pleaded "guilty, with provocation."

A Shocking Accident.

Little Annie Pearl Weathers, the ten year old daughter of Mr. A. S. Weathers, who resides on Peace street, was accidentally shot and killed yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock at the Taylor plantation, two miles north of the city.

The distressing accident is peculiarly sad and shocking.

The gun was resting on the shoulder of Miss Annie Bell and was in the hands of little Annie Gill, aged seven years. When accidentally without warning it fired, the load of shot striking the right side of Miss Weathers' forehead. The entire right side of the skull was blown away and death was necessarily instantaneous.—Raleigh Post.

The Pension Budget.

Washington, Jan. 13.—The Senate pension appropriation bill was reported today and placed on the calendar.

It carries a total of $141,248,830, being $30,000 more than that passed by the House.

There is an increase in the item for clerk hire at the pension agencies, the Commissioner of Pensions ascertaining that the sum named by the House, $400,000, is wholly inadequate.

Mr. Caffery addressed the Senate in opposition to the immigration bill. The Senate went into secret session on the Hawaiian treaty. The chances for its adoption are said to be growing.

The Grandest Remedy.

Mr. R. B. Greeve, merchant, of Chilhowie, Va., certifies that he had consumption, was given up to die, sought all medical treatment that money could procure, tried all cough remedies he could hear of, but got no relief; spent many nights sitting up in a chair; was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery, and was cured by use of two bottles. For past three years has been attending to business, and says Dr. King's New Discovery is the grandest remedy ever made, as it has done so much for him and also for others in his community. Dr. King's New Discovery is guaranteed for coughs, colds and consumption. It doesn't fail. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store.

IN THE HINTERLAND.

WEALTH OF WEST AFRICA THAT

FRANCE AND ENGLAND ARE AFTER.

The Traders of the Two European Countries Are Engaged in a Struggle

For Conquest Which May Call For Arbitration to Prevent a War.

James Pinnock, African merchant of Liverpool, who was one of the original promoters of the Royal Niger company and director for many years, in the course of an interview with a representaative of The Daily Mail, said: "I went out to west Africa 40 years ago and visited almost every port and place in that region, and my business has been with west Africa ever since. In 1870 I built a steamer, called the Rio Niger, specially for service on the river Niger, and with her I explored and opened up, for the first time in history, the river For-cados. This river flows into the Atlantic and is one of the entrances to the Niger.

"The importance of this great river

Niger and the hinterland is well known to those who are engaged in the African trade, but we can only expect it will slowly dawn on the mind of the British public. I am convinced, however, the more they look into it the more important they will see it is to the interests of British trade not to lose any of it.

"Fifteen years ago there were four firms trading on the Niger. They were the West African company, the Central African Trading company (and with this latter Taubman Bros.—one of them

now Sir Taubman Goldie—were connected), Miller Bros. and myself. We all four firms joined and called ourselves

the United African company, which was subsequently changed to the National African company and after that again to the Royal Niger company.

"The position today," continued Mr.

Pinnock, "would be better understood if a good map could be put before the public of the whole hinterland of our west African colonies. Such a thing unfortunately does not exist at present.

The strict geography of the country is only understood by a very few. Our knowledge of the hinterland, however, has increased immensely during the past few years, and to instance one particularly large territory I would point out that the French flag is already flying at innumerable towns and stations extending from 4 degrees east longitude to 2 degrees west longitude and from about 6 degrees north latitude (in the neighborhood of Porto Novo and the Dahomey country) to the town of Say on the Niger, which is between 18 degrees and 14 degrees north. The English flag is to be found to the east of Porto Novo, and extending inland to the neighborhood of Nikki (now occupied by the French) to various degrees of latitude wherein are found the three British possessions and protectorates of Lagos, the Niger

Coast protectorate and the Royal Niger company.

"It is from the interior, however, that the future great wealth of Africa will be derived, and if all this is allowed to fall into the lap of France she will be possessed of an empire second only if not equal in the future to the whole of our Indian empire.

"See what South Africa has already developed into, and as far only as minerals are concerned. The soil of Africa has not yet been barely scratched. The population of this part of Africa, with the advent of railways, stopping of the slave trade, cessation of internal tribal warfare, will increase in equal ratio to that of the most favored parts of the southern states of America—I mean as far as the multiplication of the negro population is concerned.

"The development of this hinterland will, in my opinion, exceed all the dreams of the most enthusiastic colonial party in France. Both France and England have sacrificed many men and much money in the race to grasp this priceless treasure, and the difficulty of apportioning it will, I believe, be so great that it is more than probable, to avert extremes, it will have to be referred to some other nation, or council of nations, to arbitrate on, as the matter is far too weighty for easy or speedy settlement.

"As evidence of the activity of the French I may point to the railway from Senegal to the upper Niger. This is Evangelist Lee in Florida.

Rev. J. W. Lee, the Irish Evangelist is holding a series of meetings at Orlando Florida. The Daily Reporter of that place says of him:

Mr. Lee is one of the most original and impressive speakers we have ever heard in Orlando, and those who fail to hear him are doing themselves an injustice.

He is filled with the love of God—such love as goes out to his fellow man of every name and raises him above churchism and prejudice.

Of his discourse the night before the Reporter says:

Mr. Lee's address was full of love and sympathy, demonstrating from the word of God the fullness of grace which abounds to the humble, earnest child of God.

Now this little fellow did not make any such foolish request as the above, because he is a bright little boy and quick to recognize a good thing when he sees it.

What he Did Say, was This:

"Mother, won't you please quit buying me such poorly made garments, and get me a suit of the never-rip, button-never-come-off kind? They are made by that noble old lady, Mrs. Jane Hopkins, who has devoted her life to the construction of a suit for boys that will stand hard wear. The seams are all taped, with the pants made double seat and double knee, and as long as they last they will be sold at a you-take-the-profit price, by

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Spot cotton at New York is one-tenth lower today.

Sample Brown Mercantile company advertise white goods in the Telegram today.

A. B. Creech is very ill at his home on McGee street, The Telegram regrets to learn.

Four copper cents bearing date 1898 are exhibited in Lindau's front window, and this year has only been on fourteen days.

Profs. John J. Blair and D. T. Huyck, of Winston, came down last night to see "A Scrap of Paper" at the Academy of Music.

Matthews, Chisholm & Stroud have a new ad in the Telegram. It is of much interest to parents who contemplate buying suits for their boys.

As soon as we are on speaking terms with Danville through the new phone, The Telegram will ask The Farrago if that planet has struck the earth.

Messrs. John Gill, receiver, J. W. Fry, general manager, and H. L. Fry, chief engineer of the C. F. and Y. V., are spending a day or two in the vicinity of Cull hunting.

The room between Lindau and Richardson & Fariss has been remodeled by Wingate Bros. to be used for their sewing machine and bicycle business. It is one of the prettiest business sites in the city.

Read the definition of "a bad sign" as given in the advertisement of the Fishplate-Katz-Rankin Co. in the Telegram. No trouble to get plenty of people to agree to the statement there-in contained.

The telephone line between this city and Danville has been completed, and as soon as the small matter of signing a contract or two has been arranged, talking will begin. In the meantime our Danville friends can continue to get the Greensboro news through The Telegram.

Mr. G. W. Koerner, who is a new and valued citizen of Greensboro, has opened a grain and feed store on West Market street, in the room formerly occupied by Wingate Bros. The Telegram welcomes Mr. Koerner as a citizen and as a business man, and wishes him much success, bespeaking for him a share of the patronage of those who buy such articles as he carries in his stock.

Glenn Today?

A Washington special of yesterday to the Charlotte Observer says:

In reference to the "hold-up" in Greensboro, Senator Pritchard authorized the statement today that Mr. Glenn will be appointed postmaster and that his name may be sent to the Senate tomorrow. The delay is said, to be an inadvertence on the part of Postmaster General Gary. It is now certain that the appointment will be made independent of conditions as to Sharp's appointment as assistant postmaster.

A DELIGHTED AUDIENCE.

Asked Why The Dramatic Club Did Not Play Before.

The Greensboro Dramatic club played "A Scrap of Paper" at the Academy of Music to one of the best houses of the season and not only that but the house was entertained with some of the best acting seen here this year. The play was a good one and the management was fortunate in the assignment of roles. The talents of the individual actors were well suited to their parts.

The leading man was G. P. Talbott as Prosper Couramont and his interpretation of the part was almost beyond criticism. The scene between Prosper and the Baron in the last act was one of the cleverest bits of acting seen on the stage here this year. The role of the Baron, a jealous husband, was well played by C. R. Brown.

Miss Watlington as the Baroness and Miss Staples as Suzanne, her cousin, were the leading ladies and delighted the audience. Miss Staples' pacification of the Baron was exceedingly well executed and exceedingly feminine as was also the scene with Prosper where the "Scrap of Paper" was the bone of contention. Miss Watlington searching Prosper's apartment was also very close to life.

Miss May Small as Zenobia was clever and comic. She was very manifestly a favorite with house.

J. S. Michaux as Brismouche, Miss Nettie Sloan as Mathilde and Will McAdoo as Anatole were all worthy of the leading roles, while Miss Laura Ballard as Madame Dupont, Miss May Harrison as Pauline and G. A. Rankin as Baptiste were irreproachable servants.

The play gave great satisfaction and it is to be hoped the club will give more performances. It would be more satisfactory to theatre goers and to the management as well than many of the companies that come here—than most of them indeed. The Brockmann Orchestra furnished excellent music.

"CHERRY!"

A WARNING.

Something Worthy of the Attention of Tobacco Manufacturers.

So much carelessness has been observed in the way in which manufacturers of tobacco have affixed and canceled stamps that the revenue officers have been instructed to make examinations. The law makes it imperative upon the manufacturer of tobacco to cancel the stamp with a Government die, which is furnished by the collector, and requires that "The stamp must be so canceled that a portion of every stamp shall be driven into and lodged within the wood of the package." In effecting such cancellation the die would be required to be applied twice to every stamp upon the package, once in the place on stamp marked "Reserved for cancellation," and a second time over and upon the vignette of the stamp. Where this is so imperfectly done and the paste used is so inferior that the stamp can be removed intact, the package is required to be seized. After the stamps on wooden packages have become dry, and the cancellation made as hereinbefore described, they must be varnished over thoroughly twice, allowing short interval for the first coating to set, but not so as to obscure or obliterate the impressions upon the stamp.

The following recipes for cheap and practical paste and varnish, furnished to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue by a manufacturer who has fully tested them, are hereby prescribed for use:

For paste: Dissolve 1 pound of gum arabic in 1½ pints of boiling water, add from 2 to 4 ounces of acetic acid, and keep it corked when not in use. Apply evenly with a small brush to the stamp, or notice, and press it firmly upon the wood with a clean piece of white paper between the stamp and the hand.

For varnish: Place in a bottle of sufficient size one-half pound of bleached gum shellac, broken fine, and add strong alcohol. Shake occasionally until entirely dissolved, and keep it corked to prevent evaporation. Should the varnish at any time become too thick, add a small quantity of alcohol.

Blackening Shoes

Is a Bad Habit.

It always shows, besides dirtying skirts. It is unnecessary for anyone to do it. A good shoe, a shoe such as we sell for $2.50 will look well until it is worn out. There are no defects in the leather to wear shabby and cry for blackening. We know our stock is good. We think we can perfectly satisfy you in every respect. We hope you will come to us next time you think of blackening your shoes.

Guilford Department Store

calls your attention to a handsome line of dress skirts which they have reduced from $5 and $6 to $3.50, made of all wool storm serge and full rustle lining. Also handsome novelty goods.

Our line of coats is somewhat broken in sizes and all we have on hand we propose to close out regardless of cost. As coats change so much in style, if we wait to see what next season brings forth we may get left, so have decided to make great sacrifices.

Come and take a good look at our Underwear. Have a nice line of Corset Covers from 12 1-2c for a good cambric waist, and a nice Hamburg trimmed front and back for 25c. Our gowns that were $1 we have marked 75c; good cambric with Hamburg trimming in Hubbard and Empire style. The skirts are in plain and umbrella ruffles, handsomely trimmed and ranging in price from 75c to $1. A nice line of Drawers from 25c to $1.25.

Kindly give us a call.
